

THE FAITHWAY

SEPTEMBER 2013

OUR MISSION:

To welcome all people into an ever-deepening relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ.

A MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR:

Dear Friends,

We are on the verge of the celebration of our 150 years as the Episcopal Church in Santa Fe. The festivities will begin with a parish picnic at Camp Stoney on Saturday, October 5 beginning at 4pm. On Sunday we will have a special liturgy and music to celebrate the Feast of St. Francis, our patron, as well as a special breakfast between the 8:30 and 11:00 services. Our docents will be available for tours of the church that morning and then, in the afternoon, we will continue the celebration with the Blessing of the Animals. Other special events will be scheduled throughout our year of celebration.

Often people will ask, “How may I serve the parish?” or “Where do you need help in the ministries of the church?” There are several opportunities that are in special need of your ministry at this time: our movie nights have been very successful and a great deal of fun and we need someone or a group of people to coordinate the continuation of that ministry. Secondly, we need someone or a group to coordinate our ministry at the Interfaith Homeless Shelter. We have been active in the work of the shelter since it began six years ago and I believe we should continue in our support, financially and physically. We have had over one hundred volunteers each year and we need someone to step forward to coordinate the two weeks we volunteer to serve at the shelter. Lastly, we need someone or a group to step forward and take responsibility for the first Sunday of the Month breakfast in December, February, April, June, and August.

As we look back to 150 years of worship in Santa Fe, we have so much to give thanks for. Often I will enter the church building and find myself admiring the beauty of what has been provided for us: Holy Faith is such a beautiful worship space. Recently, one of visitors was leaving and said of our worship, “The choir is excellent, but as I sang with the congregation standing in the Nave, I felt like I was in the midst of the choir!” I am constantly encouraged and edified by our worship and the various classes I facilitate. The spiritual depth of the conversation and questions reminds me weekly of our mission statement, that we are growing into an ever deepening relationship with Jesus Christ our Lord.

I give thanks to God, most of all, for you and for your faithfulness. I pray that God will continue to raise up people to lead in the various ministries of the parish.

God bless you,

Ken Semon

HOLY FAITH CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

OCTOBER CHILDREN'S ADVENTURES will take place on four Tuesday afternoons, October 1, 8, 15, and 22, from 4:00-5:30 pm. Children Superstars of the Bible will be our theme. Children ages 3½ to 11 years can spend a great afternoon with good stories of famous children of the Bible. Each Tuesday will also include art activities, outdoor games, and a tea party on the theme of the day. Introduce a new family to Holy Faith by inviting them to participate in the fun! To register, call Dean Peggy Patterson at 982-4447, ext.119.

HOLY FAITH CHILDREN'S CHAPEL continues every Sunday at 8:30 am in the Chapel of the Good Shepherd. Children 3½ to 11 years come together to have their own liturgy and Bible story from the day's lectionary. The service includes singing, the Children's Creed, Lord's Prayer, and their own created Prayers of the People. Many thanks to all the wonderful Children's Chaplains who work with Dean Peggy Patterson and Ann MacVicar to make this possible. We have a few openings to assist with Chapel. Call Dean Peggy at 982-4447 if you would like to know more.

SAVE THE DATE All families are encouraged to participate in the kick off activities for the 150th Anniversary for Holy Faith. Join the fun on Saturday, September 5, at the Church Picnic. Special activities and games will be set up for kids. And bring your pet for the Blessing of the Animals on Sunday, October 6 at 4:00 pm.

MID-SINGLES TOUR OF BOTANICAL GARDEN

All Mid-Singles (40++) are invited to meet after church at 12:30 pm on Sunday, September 8, to drive to the Santa Fe Botanical Garden for a lovely personal tour given by our own Cathy Gronquist. After the tour, we will enjoy our bag lunches under the new shelters. Bring your own sack lunch and drink. The Botanical Garden is mostly accessible. The one-time admission cost to enter the Botanical Garden is $5.00, or you may become a member of the Garden for an annual fee of $35. For more information call Dean Peggy Patterson at 982-4447, ext. 119.

HOLY FAITH WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY PILGRIMAGE TO CHARTRES AND PARIS SEPTEMBER 14-23, 2013

Twelve women will accompany Dean Peggy Patterson on a Pilgrimage to France to study the long history of the Spirituality of Mary in the life and art and worship of Chartres Cathedral. The group will spend four days and nights in the small medieval village of Chartres at the monastic seminary next to the Cathedral. They will also study and experience the ancient Chartres Labyrinth, walked by so many Pilgrims through the ages. The Chartres Conference will be led by The Reverend Dr. Lauren Artress, retired Canon of Grace Cathedral and Honorary Canon of Chartres Cathedral.

The group will then travel to Paris for a tour of the many Churches there, including Vespers at Notre Dame Cathedral, a tour of St Chappelle, Mass at St. Sulpice with an organ concert on the largest organ in Paris, and a tour of the three oldest churches in the St. Germain district.

On Monday, September 9, the Pilgrimage Group will attend Evening Prayer together at 4:30 pm in the Chapel. The group will receive a Blessing from the Rector for their Pilgrimage.

NEW BEREAVEMENT GROUP FORMING

This fall a new Bereavement Group will begin meeting in September and October. The group will meet weekly for the first six weeks beginning September 25, from 1:30-3:00 pm. The group will share their experiences of loss and their continuing journey toward integration of memories and incorporation of loved ones into their current lives and new relationships. Following the first introductory meetings, the group will decide together on a schedule for future gatherings. If you would like to know more, or think this might be helpful to you, please call Dean Peggy Patterson at 982-4447, ext. 119 or email revpeggy@gmail.com to arrange an initial meeting with her.

LIBRARY CORNER

SAVE THE DATE – Tuesday, October 29, is the date of the next Library Tea. We will have a special presentation by Mike Ward about Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz (1651-1695), the nun, scholar and poet, born in Mexico when it was part of the colonial Spanish Empire. Mike's presentation will be based on Octavio Paz's well-known biography of Sor Juana, Sor Juana: or, The Traps of Faith. The Library owns a copy of Octavio Paz's book and we have compiled a list of other books about Sor Juana available at local libraries.

NEW BOOKS THIS MONTH – Church Dogmatics is a 14-volume set by the 20th century Swiss theologian Karl Barth.

DO YOU HAVE LIBRARY BOOKS TO RETURN TO THE PARISH LIBRARY? – We have a long list of overdue books. Please check your shelves, your car, beside your bed, and return any books you may have borrowed. The borrowing period is three weeks, and books will be cheerfully renewed if you wish to keep them longer.

THE LIBRARY IS ALWAYS OPEN – The Parish Library is open to parishioners whenever the church offices are open. You are welcome to come in and browse, look up a book on our computer catalog, check books out, or simply sit and read. Assistance is available on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10:00 - 4:30 p.m. and on some Thursday mornings. Please call Wendy Hitt at 982-4447, ext. 113, if you would like to schedule a time to learn more about the library.

FIRST SUNDAYS – Clarke Fountain will be in the library on Sunday, September 1, and every first Sunday of the month between services. Please come in and explore your church library; Clarke will be glad to help you find a particular book or recommend interesting reading.

MINISTRY AND OUTREACH COMMITTEE PRESENTS VISION EN ACCION

Vision En Accion of Juarez, Mexico, has caught the true spirit of Saint Francis, the patron saint of Santa Fe and the namesake of our church. On September 15th the Mission and Outreach Committee has invited Morgan Smith, a Santa Fe resident and liaison to Vision in Action to present a slide show and a movie trailer describing the work in Juarez.

Several years ago, Jose Antonio Galavan, the founder, had experienced difficulties in his own life and though not well educated, saw the need for serving the mentally challenged and disenfranchised of Juarez, Mexico. Many of these people came from other communities and were living on the streets of this large city. Unable to provide for themselves, Galavan gathered clothing, medicine and food for them. He preached words of hope and of God's love to them.

Although there are no provisions to cover the mentally challenged in an emerging economy like Mexico, the government did provide two industrial-sized washing machines for their use. Often the washing machines are not in working order so the people of the institution wash their own blankets and clothing. They lay the blankets and clothing on the bushes to dry in the surrounding area. This is done several times per week.

Through a book that was written by Charles Bowden on Juarez, Mexico, and translated into Italian, the needs of Vision En Accion were met by a group of Italians. They provided $70,000.00 to build two large buildings; one for women and one for the men with small dwellings in between. These private dwellings are for those who are unable to fit socially among the general population.

The needs are great, servicing about one hundred individuals. The current pressing need is to provide funds for bunk beds for the men, blankets, metal mirrors and the cost of gas to collect food from the local food banks in the area.

Come and experience the thrill of being a part of this worthy ministry.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY SAVE THE DATE!

Mark your calendars for an exciting new offering for Women's Spirituality. Plan now to join one of the five-week Lectio Divina groups on the incredible 12th century Benedictine Abbess, Hildegard of Bingen.

Cha Foxhall, M.Ed. LPCC, Obate of the Order of Saint Benedict and Spiritual Director, will lead two identical small groups on Tuesdays, October 1, 8, 15, 22, 29, and Thursdays, October 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, from 12:00-1:15 pm in the Campbell Room.

The Lectio Divina groups include prayer, scripture, contemplative music, readings of Hildegard's writings, commentary, meditation and journaling. The text is Praying with Hildegard of Bingen. Each group is limited to nine people. Sign up now if you would like to be in one of these groups. Email Dean Peggy Patterson at revpeggy@gmail.com, or call 982-4447, ext. 119.

FOOD FOR SANTA FE

Would you like to participate in filling 600-900 bags of groceries and fresh eggs for hungry families and children in Santa Fe? Every Wednesday from 6:00-8:00 am, volunteers fill bags with food to have ready for clients on Thursday morning. This takes place on Siler Road in a building adjacent to the Food Depot.

On Thursdays, you can opt to come at 6:00-6:30 am to fill the bags with the remaining perishable items like fresh eggs and fruit and potatoes. The drive through grocery delivery begins at 6:15 am until all 900 bags have been given out to clients, usually about 8:30 am. You can still make it to work or college! Call Jacki Walker or Peggy Patterson, Board Members to learn more.

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAITH

- Q. What is the mission of the Church?
A. The mission of the Church is to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ.

The Catechism p. 855

The Church of the Holy Faith welcomes all people into an ever-deepening relationship with Jesus Christ our Lord.

We believe in God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the Sacraments, and the Authority of Scripture.

We honor our Anglican heritage and praise God with solemn liturgy, traditional Prayer Book worship, and music to exalt the spirit.

We strive to live as a community with compassion for one another and the world around us.

We worship together in peace to praise and thank God,
to transcend division,
and to celebrate the mystery of faith.

The Episcopal Church is part of the worldwide Anglican Communion, an international association of national Anglican churches.
