

Church of the Holy Faith Creed Triptych Chancel Windows

The lancet shaped windows above the Altar in the Church of the Holy Faith were designed and installed by Judson Studios of Los Angeles, California in 1954 and are dedicated to the Glory of God in memory of his father, a missionary priest, by chancel addition architect John Gaw Meem IV. The text is the Nicene Creed as published in the 1928 Book of Common Prayer.

I BELIEVE in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God; Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God; Begotten, not made; Being of one substance with the Father; By whom all things were made:

The Holy Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Ghost are represented by the triune figures at the peak of the central window.

Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man:

"I am the Alpha and the Omega" are represented by the Greek Letters written near the peak of the outer two windows.

And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried:

And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures: And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father:

And he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

The appearance of Christ's torn burial shroud is taken from The Gospel according to Saint John, Chapter 20 verses 5-7:

<sup>5</sup> And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

<sup>6</sup> Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, <sup>7</sup> And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost,
The Lord, and Giver of Life,
Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified;
Who spake by the Prophets:

Depictions of Pontius Pilate and Christ's burial cave are found within the borders between the Crucifixion and Holy Ghost window images.

Note the Chi Rho symbol on the Altar face of the central bottom image entitled by the designers as "Worship."

And I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church:

I acknowledge one Baptism for
the remission of sins:

The Four Major Old Testament Prophets: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel and Daniel are shown at each corner of the Baptismal image above.

And I look for the Resurrection of the dead: And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

*The Nicene Creed is used for Holy Eucharist services; the Apostles'
Creed is used for Daily Offices.*

The 1979 Book of Common Prayer included changes to the Nicene Creed with the restoration of the word holy prior to "Catholic and Apostolic Church:" which was omitted from the 1928 BCP and the addition of a corporate "We believe" version for Rite II Sunday Eucharist.
